

Amy is an OT and Assistive Technology Specialist for the Bellingham Public Schools in Bellingham, Washington. She provides collaborative consultations and professional development across the state with the Special Education Technology Center. Beyond the school setting, Amy is a volunteer with Empower Spinal Cord Injury, Inc., where she contributes to a second chance at rehab for individuals with spinal cord injury.